Brianna began her career in family law in 2015 as a law clerk for Law Offices of Debra DiMaggio while attending Loyola University School of Law. Upon admission to the Illinois Bar in 2017, Brianna became an associate attorney of the firm.

Brianna focuses her practice on all areas of family law including divorce, prenuptial agreements, parentage actions, and child and spousal support. Her direct, clear, and patient communication style enables her clients to make informed decisions and feel at ease. She has handled cases in Cook County and all of the Chicago collar counties (i.e., DuPage, Lake, Will, McHenry, Grundy, Boone counties).

She has maintained an active role in the Justinian Society since law school. Recently, she has participated in the start of a new group called the Associate Lady Lawyers (“ALL”). ALL is geared toward the support and education of associate female lawyers in the domestic relations division.

In 2014, Brianna graduated with distinction from DePaul University where she earned her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Italian.
